The Ceremony of the Key

ITS ORIGIN

On November 8th 1924, Sir Frederick de Wail, then administrator of the Cape Province, unveiled the magnificent War Memorial which stands in front of the School. At the conclusion of the moving Service of Dedication, Sir Frederick turned to Charles Prior, Head Boy of the College, and handed him a large silver key. "You are to look after the monument and this consecrated ground on which we now stand," he told Prior. "You have in keeping the memory of many men who made the supreme sacrifice. Their memory and what they died for will live forever as the generations come and go." Later that month the first Ceremony of the Key was held as Prior passed his charge on to the 1925 Custodian and a new tradition was born. Every year since, a member of the Incoming Matriculation Class has been elected by the popular vote of his fellows as the Custodian of the Key for one year and the handing-over ceremony is now a traditional part of the Founders' Day proceedings.

In September 1938, the Officer Commanding of the Cadet Detachment, Colonel Tim Harvey, gave the Ceremony its present form and authentic military flavour. The format has remained unaltered to this day.

The Key is regarded as a symbol of guardianship of, and responsibility for, the traditions and values of Selborne. The "Changing of the Guard", with the Grade 12 group handing custody to the Grade 11's, symbolises the passage of responsibility for, and leadership of, the pupil body and all it holds dear, from those departing to those remaining.

Those on parade today are all current pupils of the College.

FOUNDERS' DAY 2016

Parade Commander: Qawo Gysman

The Assembly is requested to stand as the Guards escorting the Colour approach the Memorial precincts.

1 - HYMN No. 1

(Assembly Standing)

1. O God our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home!

2. Time, like an ever-flowing stream,
Runs of its course away,
They fly forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day.

3. O God our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be thou our guard while life shall last,
And our eternal home!

2 - THE LESSON

Sergo Kambashi
Ecclesiastes 4, verses 1 to 15

(Assembly Seated)

3 - PRAYERS By the Headmaster: Mr A. Dewar

(Assembly Seated)

- (a) For the School
- (b) For those from the School who laid down their lives in the World Wars, 1914 - 1918 and 1939 - 1945
- (c) For our Country
- (d) For the benefactors of the School
- (e) The Lord's Prayer (All unite in saying the prayer)
